

Order Of Service

For

Service Of Songs
A Celebration Of Life

Venerable Most Superior Evangelist
Amos Isei -(JP)
Age 65 Years

Sunrise
August 23, 1947

@

Sunset
November 13, 2012

J. P. Jenkins Funeral Home
7474 Landover Road
Hyattsville, MD 20785

On

Thursday, December 27th, 2012, 7-9 pm

Venerable Senior Evangelist (Prophet) Barrister

Amos Isei - (JP)

1947 - 2012 - Age 65 Years

Biography

Venerable Senior Evangelist (Pro.) Bar. Amos Osei -JP

In 1947, the year Celestial Church of Christ was descended, a living star also appeared with that grace of the covenant between man and God and that singular star dropped to that great city - Afuze and to a family of Isei and the great man Amos was born. The man we are celebrating his spiritual achievements today, baby Amos of 1947 attended St. Josephs Catholic Grammar School Otuo in Owan East Local Govt. Area of Edo State.

The man Amos served in the Military Intelligence Corps in the Nigerian Army as Military personnel. The mighty hands of God in 1971, overpowered the young Amos and the mighty light of God dimmed into his eyes and overtook him and there was a change of baton from the earthly race to the Spiritual race. The man popularly known as Prophet Amos otherwise Woll Amos is a Spiritual Builder and a source of blessings to those who are close to him. The man Amos believes that his wealth, blessings and spiritual gifts are attached to other People's destiny. Wail Amos is a favorite of the Pastor/Founder- Rev. S. BJ Oshoffa, a favorite also to Rev. Pastor A.A. Bada. He is also a son to Rev. Pastor PH Ajose. Amos who is spiritually a Golden fish is also being identified today by the present Pastor-Rev. Mobinyina Friday Osnofta. It is true that destiny cannot be changed. What is written is written.

Amos saw the need for education in all ramifications that the power of being educated cannot be over emphasized, this he believes that the power of education will enhance his spiritual calling like Apostle Paul in the Scriptures. Amos went into this academic voyage while in the service of the Lord. He flunged himself back to school with his 4 children in the same University (Great Ambrose Ali University, Ekpoma, Edo State) With great determination, Amos came out with flying colors and made Second Class Upper Division in Law.

In pursuance of his legal education, Amos went to the Nigerian Law School and passed with an award and got called to Bar as a Barrister, Solicitor and Advocate of the Supreme Court of Nigeria. Amos saw his legal education as an opium that when tested and tasted, the urge to have more of it is assured. Therefore, Amos saw the need to further his academic pursuit, he went back to school for his Masters in Law and bagged his Masters degree (LLM) Presently he is the Shepherd and Provincial Head of CCC Lagos Island Province, Lagos. Amos is married and blessed with Children.